Through,

The Amildar, Shimoga Taluk,
S h i m o g a

Respected Sir,

I beg to submit herewith my application for the post of a Chief Officer, for favour of your kind recommendation to Government for being viewed with sympathy

I have, having joined duty on 1st September 1923, put in a total of 22 years of service and have worked in the several branches of work in the District Office and also as Sheristedar in Shimoga and Shikaripur taluks Out of this total service, I have worked as Municipal clerk in the District offices at Chitaldrug and Shimoga for nearly ten years and I have sufficient experience of Municipal Law and its working.

I have qualified myself by passing Revenue, Accounts, and Criminal (all higher), Registration, Incometax and Municipal examinations My general qualification is University Entrance examination I have now been working in the executive line, since 8th August 1943 as Special Sheristedar in the Food branch I have, throughout my service, given complete satisfaction to my superiors, andextracts from my Character book which I am also submitting herewith bear testimony to the same I am now drawing a pay of Rs 80/- plus 20/-

I understand that Mr S Channakrishnaiah has been appointed as Chief Officer, Nanjangud, and that he is not willing to go as such In this connection, I request, that I may be kindly recommended for being appointed in his place My name had been recommended for being included in the list of eligible candidates on previous occasions I therefore request you, Sir, to kindly recommend my case strongly, for being appointed in the existing vacancy at Nanjanagud

For this act of kindness I shall be ever grateful.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Special Sheristedar,
Shimoga Taluk
